

Macintosh Schools Network 2007 Professional Development Series

Creating Websites using iWeb

Thursday, August 30th 2007

4:15 pm - 6:00 p.m.

to be held in the library at
Williamstown Primary School
Electra St, Williamstown.
Cost: $40.00 per participant

Tea, coffee etc. on arrival.

iWeb is a part of the iLife '06 suite of applications. It lets you easily create website by drag and drop. No knowledge of web code such as HTML is needed. This makes it easy for both teachers and students to make their own websites to enhance their teaching and learning experiences.

Presenters:

Mark Richardson – ICT Coordinator,
Williamstown Primary School.

Deb Hicks – ICT Coordinator, Footscray West Primary School.

Session Outline

This session aims to show you how easy it is to create websites using iWeb. During the session participants will make their own website. This will include a homepage, and other pages that integrate the power of iLife '06. This may include a blog, a podcast [created with GarageBand 3], a photo slideshow [using images from iPhoto] and a [QuickTime] Movie page [created in iMovie HD]. Participants will be shown how these websites can be hosted on school intranets or internet websites

- ✓ Examples of students' websites from the middle years [5-8] will be shown.
 - ✓ Suggestions for classroom / school use will be discussed.
- ✓ This PD is important to all teachers in schools with Macs and those with iBooks & MacBooks
 - ✓ Support materials will be provided.
- ✓ Computers will be supplied for your use during the session, [you do not need to bring a notebook].
